

Need-to-know strategies and insights on how to make the right call

One-to-One Aides for Students With Disabilities: Addressing Key Compliance Issues

Presented by Melanie D. Larzul, Esq.

IEP teams often have to determine whether or not a student requires a one-to-one aide as part of their IEP plan. Attorney Melanie D. Larzul will take you and your teams through recent cases to provide practical strategies you can use to address common questions that arise during this part of the IEP process.

- Learn steps an IEP team should take when determining whether or not a student needs a one-to-one aide and whether it's necessary for FAPE
- Gain insights on potential alternatives and pointers to determine if another option best fits the student's needs
- Find out how to recognize when a student has become dependent on an aide
- Discover best practices to communicate with the student's parents to avoid legal issues
- And much more!
